EMAIL SELF REGISTRATION- USAF

- Things to be aware of....
 - ▣ If you enter an email other than an official AF email, you will be unable to create an account
 - ▣ You must set up a password - there is a “forgotten password” reminder feature
 - ▣ Do not set up account if you don't have immediate access to your official email – the link that will be sent to your official email has a short life span

EMAIL SELF REGISTRATION – STEP 5 – See message – go to your official email inbox

The image is a screenshot of the OverDrive website interface. At the top, there is a search bar with "all" selected in a dropdown menu, a "GO!" button, and a link to "Advanced Search...". Below the search bar is a checkbox labeled "Only show titles with available copies". The main content area features a breadcrumb trail "> Home > Login" and a prominent green box with the heading "See Below For More Information". A red arrow points from the search bar area down to this green box. The green box contains the text: "Unable to log in at this time? See below for details." Below this, a yellow box contains the following details: "Details: (2) Before you can use this service, you must verify your email address. An email has been sent to verify your account. Click on the verification link sent to your US Air Force email account, and you will then be able to access the service. Re-validation is required every 12 months." At the bottom of the yellow box is a blue link: "Click here to return to the login form." The left sidebar contains the "powered by OverDrive" logo and a list of categories: "Accessible eBooks - Click here.", "Audiobook Fiction", "Audiobook Nonfiction", "eBook Fiction", "eBook Nonfiction", "Browse Video", and "Browse Music". The right sidebar contains links for "Supported Audio Devices", "Supported eBook Devices", "OverDrive® Media Console™" (with a note about government computers), and "Adobe® Digital Editions" (with a note about government computers).
